Dispatch From General Chaffee Gives Plans For the Attack,

DID NOT BLUNDER UPON THE ENEMY

Strategic Importance of Reachin, Yung Tann - Unless Chinese Are Demoralized by Defeat the International Forces May Expect Severe Figlithing All the Way to Peking.

Washington, Apg. 7.- The war do partment has received the following cablegram from General Chaffee:

"Tien Tsln, August 3.-Conferences today decided to Legln the battle Sunday. Chinese intrenched east and west through Peitsang. Rest of Chinese protected by llooded ground practically unassailable. Japanesc, English and Americans forces about 10, 000 strongattacked Chinese right, weofriverin flank. Other forces, Russian, French, about 4,000 strong, opposite side between river and rallroad. Chinese position apparently strong. Army reported 30,000 between Pebang and Yang Tsun or crossing of road Pei-His. Yang Tsun objective. Our force 2,000 and hattery. Conemaugh arrived. Sixth cavalry left at Tien Tsin for guard of city and awaiting mounts. Ministers safe July 28. CHAFFEE."

Washington, Aug. 7.—The dispatch of General Chaffee written before the battle of Sunday confirms the dis patches received at the navy department and later press dispatches con cerning the attack on the hinese at Peltsang. The most interesting feature of the dispatch is the information regarding the positions of the Chinese army and the fact that the advance upon Peking Is made by two columns, one on each side of the Pei-Ho river.

American Troops Engaged. The Americans who participated were the Ninth and Fourteenth regiments, eilly's battery and the marlnes.

The international force as given by General Chaffee, would aggregate about 14,000 men, while the other dis patches say 16,000, but this difference can easily be accounted for, as more men might have been available wach the movement began than when the conference was held August 3. This conference is supposed to have been between the several commanders pres ent at Tien Tsin. It is evident that the foreign commanders do not underesti mate the task before them, as the dispatch shows a thorough reconnoissance of the Chinese position had been made and even before the advance of the international force from Tien Tsin, the commanders were in possession of full Information relative to the Chi nese position. This is one of the most welcome features of the dispatch as it proves conclusively the international column did not hlunder upon an intrenched position of the enemy.

Thetown, Pletsang, covers both sides of the Pel river, but the main portion of It Is on the left side where the Jap. anese, English and Americau forces arranged to attack the enemy in flank. The left of the Chinese on the other side of the river, according to the dispatch, was partially protected by flood ed ground and practically unassail able for that reason. According to the map, there is a lake live miles from the river at this point and canais which gridiron the country thereahout. The Russian and French force were to attack the enemy's left on the right bank of the river between the river and the raliroad.

This makes it probable that the flooded district extended only to the Ilne of the railroad, about a mile and a half from the river.

Moving on Yang Tsuu. General Chaffee's dispatch shows another important feature of the plan of campaign agreed upon by the internotional commanders. It is that the lumbus, O., Aug. 15, but owing to other present objective point of the column business he will probably he unable ls Yang Tsun, a town about 15 miles beyond Pletsang, where the raliroad crosses the Pel river from the right on the way to Peking. Once in possession of this point, the international terson, who died last year.

force would have both the railroad and river in its rear for keeping open communication with Tien Tsln. It naturally would become the advance base from which operations on Peking Prosecution Wants to Prove That could be projected.

The Chinese evidently are so much impressed with the strategic advantages of Yang Vsun as the internation- DISPUTE AS TO WHERE GUBEL FELL. al eommanders themselves, as the eno my is reported 30,000 strong at the crossing of the road over the l'er river. Witnout doubt after the fighl at Peltsang the Chinese force, if the report of Admiral Remey that the Civ nese were forced to retreat proves correct, retired to Yang Tsun. There: is no information as to the number of the enemy which met the advance at Peltsang, but judging from the casuaities to the international force, it must have been large and may perhaps double the Chinese army which the column must encounter when it reach es Yang Tsun.

The general feeling at the war de partment is that unless the Chinese generals have been completely demoralized by the Peitsang attack, there is very severe lighting alread for the inhernational forces and that the ground will he dispured all the way to Peking.

BRUTAL RUSSIANS.

Returned Missionary Says They Committed eiendish Atrochus.

San Francisco, Aug. 7 .- A story of Russlan brutality in Calna is told by Mrs. E. B. Lirew, wife of the British commander of customs at Tlen Tsia, who arrived on the transport Log She says: "During the bombardment we fived most of the time in the cenar of our house, which was partially wrecked by shells. Sleep was out of the question and so unstrung were we that little food satisfied us. There was ever present the haunting fear of the Chinese trlumphing and slaughtering every foreigner and convert. Some, probably all, of the women were prepared to act lu case the Chinese effected an entrance, but, it appears the allied officers were prepared to act. I did not know it at the time, but I learned later that 10 or 20 men had been detailed to kill ail the foreign women in case the Chinese were the victors."

Mrs. Drew, with much indignation, spoke of atrocities committed by Russian troops, saying: "They pillaged. looted, tortured and murdered right and left. There were many infants and children killed by bayonet thrusts. And many were tossed from bayonet points only to be caught and again tossed time and again. There is ample evidence of these unspeakable occurrences.

"Out from Tien Tsin, along the Pei-Ho and Yellow rivers are numerous little villages. The Russians swept through the villages destroying life and property. The Russians also drove women and children Into the Pci-Ho and Yellow rivers, where they were drowned. There was no attempt at eoneealing all of the remarkably barbarous conduct. I do not pretend to say how many women and ehildren were hutchered by the Russians, i never heard the number estimated, save that & great many had been bayonetted and some shot."

RETURNING REFUGES

Tell Tales of Horror inflicted by Boxers and by Lcoters.

San Francisco Aug. 7.-Among the refugees from China who returned on the Logan, were the wife of Prof. C. D. Tenney, of the Imperial university at Tien Tsin and her chlidren. They were among those who took refuge in Gordon hail during the bombardment and escaped uninjured. Miss Lillie M. Tahr of Lincoln City, Ind., who speut two years in Tien Tsln, had three narrow escapes from the Boxers. Two children of United States · Consul Ragsdale tell stories of exciting experience. The tales of Russlan brutallty are confirmed by Rev. Frank Haynes, a Methodist missionary.

Prof. Clifford, who was one of the last to leave the besieged city says: "Looting by the allled forces began as soon as they got the upper hand. The Russlans led in this and went to extremes. They are naturally cruel and expecting no mercy, they showed none. I was an eye witness to eight coidblooded murders hy them. The vietlins were old and infirm Chinese. The Russians stole everything in sight, looting the houses in the settlement as the Chinese would have done."

Culton Got Has Pay.

One Witness Heard That Culliy Parties Were fliding lu Stace House-Monutaineers Mere Average Citizens.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 7 .- The pros ecution in the Powers case was granted a subpocha duces techn on State Auditor Coulter requiring him to bring his records into court. This is done to contradict the test mony of ex-Auditor Sam Stone, who testified that he discharged W. H. Cuiton in December and charged him with stealing $1,000. The prosecution expects to show by the record that Culton was paid his salary in both December and January and by other witnesses to nrove that since that date Stone recommended Uniton to various people as beling entirely trustworthy. The defense asked and was granted a forthwith atm brackt against E. E. Hogg, Culton's brother-hi-law and attorney, who had been subpocuaed but tailed to appear as a witness.

W. J. Lewis of Frankfort testified that Goebel tell at least 10 feet Loin the spot marked by the prosecution as the spot where he fell.

George L. Barnes, who was a clerk in the state auditor's office, give a detalled account of the occurrences on the state capitol grounds the day of the shooting. He heard several persons say that the guilty parties were being concealed in the executive build Ing and ought to be blown up. Barnes said that after he went back into the executive building he smelled smoke, which he supposed was the result of the shots. He saw Whittaker arrested hy a party of citizens. They took several pistols from him. Prior to the assassination witness saw a Mariin rifle in the vault at the auditor's oilice. It formerly belonged to Henry Youtsey, but at the time of the shooting it helonged to Grant oberts who has since heen appointed a clerk in the census bureau at Washington. not know where the rille is now. Witness taiked with oberts about the disappearance of the gun but the court ruled he could not detail the conversa. tion, neither Powers nor Youtsey be ing present when the talk occurred. John B. Hurst of Corbin testified that he was in Frankfort several times In January. The last time he went was with the mountaineers January 25. More than half of the men were armed. He contradicted several of the statements of Robert Noakes. Hurst declared that the men in the mountain army were average mountain citizens and closed by stating that he had himself been a delegate to the Repub-llcan national convention. "Did you see any of the alleged assassins of Governor Goebel at that convention?" asked Attorney Golden. The witness said that he did not, but afterwards said he saw ex-Governor Taylor there.

Hurst admitted that he had been indieted and tried for forgery at Knoxviile, Tenn., but that there was no prosecution.

WISCONSIN REPUBLICANS

Many Favor Nomination of State

Candidates by Direct Vote. Milwaukee, Aug. 7.- The Republican state convention Wednesday will select a complete state ticket and elect a new chairman of the Republican state central committee. Robert M. Lafollette, former congressman of the Sec ond district, will receive the nomluatlon for governor without opposition, and the halance of the ticket will be made up o. the present incumbents, all of whom will he nominated by acclamation. H. C. Adams, state dairy and food commissioner, bas been selected as temporary chairman of the convention.

One of the ehief features of the platform to be adopted is a plank which will probably be inserted, advocating the enactment of a law hy the next legislature favoring nominations of state officers by a direct vote of the people, thus doing away with state conventions.

BRYAN IN CHICAGO.

Biven an Enthusiastic Reception Upon His Arrival.

SAVING HIS VOICE FOR INDIANAPOLIS.

At the Sherman House Bryan and Servenson Mct and Standing Side by Side Shook Hands With Many People.

Chleago, Aug. 7 .- William J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for the presidency, arrived in Chicago on the Barlington railroad at 9:30 a.m. He was accompanied by Mrs. Bryan, their son, Governor and Mrs. Thomas of Colo rado, and John I. Martin, sergeant-atarms of the Kansas City convention. hy a local committee, several ciub. among which was the Nebraska Bryan club of Chicago, and a large number of citizens, who gave them an enthusiastic greeting.

Mr. Bryan's lirst appearance was made at Aurora at 6:20 a. m. He was cailed to the rear platform by the cries of a large crowd. Hon, Standel Alschuler, Democratic nominee or of illnois greeted Mr. Bryan and was invited into his car. There were demands for a speech, but none was made, instead, Mr. Bryan took his position on the steps of the rear platform and shook hands with the people erowded about. He told them he de sired to reserve his voice for Wednesday, and must, therefore, decline to

Mr. Alschuter introduced a number of friends and the train soon moved out. As it started, there was a cheer for "the next president" from the crowd.

When Mr. Bryan emerged from the train in Chicago, he looked cool and fresh, clean and bright, appearing well prepared for an arduous day. A committee of citizens who made up a party headed by Mayor Harrison and Robert E. Burke and Frank Winter, door and being refused admission he the latter appearing as a representashot her dead. At the Sherman house, Mr. Bryan was immediately ushered into a parlor on the ground lioor where he was soon joined by Adiai E. Stevenson, the Democratic eandidate for viee president. They greeted each other cordlally and standing side by side shook hands with a great number of people

In the party accompanying Mr. Stevenson were Mrs. Stevenson, Lewis G. Stevenson and Miss Letitia Stevenson, all of whom made the trip to Indianapolis.

Samuel Aischuler, Democratic candidate for governor of Illinols and Mayor Harrison joined the party at the hotel shortly after its arrival there. The crowds continued to file past Messrs. Bryan and Stevenson until 11:30, when the reception came to an end and the party prepared to start to Indianapolis.

A special train carrying the entire party departed over the Big Four at 1:30 p. m. Every inch of avaliable space was occupied and many disappointed Democrats were left hehlnd because they could not even find standing room.

Arrangements Completed.

THE Republican Administration doesn't seem inclined to push the Neeley and Rathbonegases lotrial. Probably Hauna doesn't want them tried until after the election.

At the county elections in Tennessee last week the Democrats made big gains all over the State and especially in East Tennessee, the hotbed of Tennessee Republicanism. In the home county of Brownlow, the Democrats won, something almost unheard of in the county and section. This county heretofore Republican by 1,000 majority, went Democratic by give it a good start. 100 votes. Going over the result of the election in about sixty-five or seventy counties some startling figures can be found. Out of these counties exactly seventeen giving Republican majorities, or being very close in the gubernatorial race of $1896, have been transferred to the Democratic column, or are on the road. In these counties, known to the Republicans as certain, the Democrats made very heavy inroads, gaining many thousand votes. They voted three to one in favor of the Republicans in 1898.

Notwithstanding that Commonwealth's Attorney Robert Franklin had. over his own signature, denied the truth of "Tallow Dick" Combs' "confession" published in the Cincinnati Enquirer, The Bulletin reprinted the whole mess of hes and palmed them off on its unsuspecting readers as the truth. Shame! -Public Ledger.

What is the editor of the Ledger trying to get through his "cocoannt," anyhow? Mr. Franklin says in plain words, "Combs did make a statement," but adds that the story published in the Enquirer is "not a correct report of what Combs had to say." Before the BULLETIN republished the Enquirer article Combs admitted to Attorney Wood Dunlap that he did make a statement to the prosecution, but that Caleb Powers' office was not mentioned, and that the Enquirer did not "correctly state the amount of money which Hockersmith had told him Youtsey had offered him." The BULLE-TIN published this along with the article, and "palmed off no lies on its unsuspecting readers as the truth." When the editor of the Ledger stated otherwise, he willfully and knowingly misrepresented the

THE POWERS' TRIAL

"As Clear a Case of Conspiracy as Was Ever Formed by Any Gang of Brigands."

(Indianapolls Sentlnel.)

It is seldom indeed that circomstantial evidence alone, aside from the admissions by parties more or less implicated, shows so conclusively a case of conspiracy, and no man who is not besotted with politics can fail to see in it as clear a case of conspiracy as was ever formed by any gang of brigands or pirates or anarchists that ever lived. And Powers practically confessed it all.

[Boston Advertiser.]

Powers now asks the public to believe and the jury to declare that he is not an accessory to the murder of Goebel. Caleb Powers seems to be the kind of man, who, after having thrown a lighted match into a pile of shavings, would be surprised and shocked to see the shavings catch fire.

[Peorla Herald.]

The whole story as unfolded by this witness and corroborated by several others presents a sickening picture of coldblooded conspiracy on the part of the creatures of candidate Taylor and of pitiable indecision and cowardice on the part of Taylor himself. No fair-minded man doubts for a moment that the killing of Goebel was the result of a plot on the part of his political opponents, and very few people doubt that Taylor had guilty knowledge of the affair, if he did not actually have a hand in it. If he were innocent he should go back to Kentucky and clear his name from the charge of conspiracy and murder. He has nothing to fear but the law, and just how much he should fear that is a question of which he is the best judge himself. His flight from the State is certainly an evidence that he does not believe he could be acquitted on the charges against him.

KENTUCKY CROPS.

Outlook Good for an Excellent Yield of Corn and Tobacco-Weekly Weather Bulletin.

Very warm weather prevailed during the week, the temperature being above normal every day. Showers occurred in many places on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th: these showers were generally light, but in some localities in the extreme northern portion of the State they were very heavy and were accompanied by severe wind and hail, causing considerable damage to crops; the area thus injured is not extensive.

Wheat threshing progressed well duilag the latter part of the week, and the results are very satisfactory in yield and quality.

Corn has improved rapidly and is now very promising.

Tobacco in most localities has advanced wonderfully and the prospects for this crop is now excellent; there are very few worms attacking the plants.

Oats have been harvested with excellent results. Pastures are generally in fine condition and stock looking well-Millet is making a very rapid growth.

Farm work is fairly well up. Considerable plowing for winter wheat has been done.

ASSASSIN KNOWN,

So Detective Russell Claims in an Interview.

Chicago Record Special Gives a Sensational Stary From This Detective-Implicates Youtsey.

The following special to the Chicago Record from Lexington is reproduced without further comment than that it adds a new phase to the already intricate and much confused conditions surrounding the Goebel murder and that if its contents he truo is sensational in the extreme:

LEXINGTON, KY., Aug. 5.—George Russell, of New York, employed by Col. T. C. Campbell as a detective in the Goebel assassination cases, arrived in Lexington to-day from Clay County, where he had been working on the details of the in a final effort to induce certain persons spend some time at Bay View, Mich. whom he learned could tell about the murder to testify in the case. Clay County is governed by officers who will not give up witnesses or prisoners should they be arrested, and the only way to get the witnesses, it is believed, would be to induce them to come to Georgetown voluntarily. Mr. Russell said:

"Kid Bowlin told be just how the plot was formed and how the assassination was executed, but I could not induce him to come and testify, nor would be agree to testify if forced to come. I worked in Clay County as a farm hand for several weeks, going to different points.

"I learned the name of the man who tired the shot. Not only this, but I learned the names of the men who were in the room when the shots were fired, what position they occupied in the room and the parts they took in the assassination. These facts I have traced down and corroborated. Col. Campbell, acting on my information, has pursued a certain line of prosecution, but Col. Franklin, the prosecuting attorney, working on the information of Detective Armstrong and others, has held him in check and wants to pursue a different courso.

Franklin believes that Youtsey fired the shot. We know he did not, and we would not put Powers on trial first, but as the matter stands we feel no fear of the conviction of all the guilty parties. Had not Col, Franklin interfered Col. Campbell would have secured a complete confession from Youtsey. He had Fairgrounds, at rate of fifteen cents. Tickhim started and Franklin broke in and ets from Fairground to Maysville ten said it would not do to promise Youtsey cents. Ticket offices will be located as anything, and that some one else would follows: One in Wallace's restaurant, do the confessing. So Youtsey was pre- (Front street side), one in Amazon envented from confessing.

"Youtsey was in the room, but did not fire the shot. He was writing on the hall door when Goebel fell. There were four other men in the room besides Youtsey. One of these fired the shot, and the other three discharged their guns into the ground through the open

"Youtsey is guilty and will be convicted. Until this is done we probably will not know the name of the assassin. In an open statement Youtsey will tell it before he will die carrying the secret with him. 'The man is in jail. Two of those who were in the room are still at large. One of them has completely dis- the company of $50 by the James H. appeared and the other is at his home Hall Plow Company was accepted, and defying arrest."

Russell is confident that the murder will out. He says it is the most peculiar papers the company's thanks for this state of affairs he ever witnessed; that most generous evidence of friendship, in in the mountains the whole plot in detail is openly discussed, but that it is no adequate return but to carry the impossible to get the men to court. He memory of the gift while life lasts and to says the assassin of Goebel borrowed $10 wish the James H. Hall Plow Company at London. He wanted $25 and assured an abundance of prosperity. the lender that he would make $1,600 in three minutes in Frankfort. In Frankfort he borrowed money on which to pay his way home, and, Russell says, the money found on Caleb Powers when arrested here was a portion of that raised to pay the assassin.
